Please note that A New Announcement on Announcements

Have an announcement for the Congregation?

To improve our communication systems we are now asking that all announcements be in writing (or emailed to firstunitedchurch@sasktel.net) and submitted to the office by Thursday at noon.

Folks may highlight their announcement on Sunday morning by referring to the written version that has been emailed.

Folks are now asked to inform the minister before the service if they wish to speak to their announcement.

Tips for effective announcement:

- keep it brief
- ensure it has: who, what, where, when & why.
- Assume there is one person in the congregation who does not know what you are talking about – that person is probably the minister!

Thanks for your attention to this matter.
